SEED Annual Fund Appeal

Once again, it's time for our annual SEED fund campaign. The SEED fund directly supports Music for Learning, Outdoor Education, and our new SMART grants. Our District is once again bracing for heavy reductions in the education budget. Your help is more important than ever. Please give generously today by sending us a check or donating on-line.

$100,000 SMART Grants Launched

With the contribution of funds from Oracle and the Westly Foundation, the RCEF is making $100,000 in grants available to bring innovative teaching in science, math, the arts, and technology into the classroom. Every school is eligible for funds. View SMART grant information kit.

New Local Business Program

The RCEF is now offering local businesses a unique opportunity to support public education in Redwood City while reaching out to school families and other community members. Participating businesses will be listed on our website and in our Winter Newsletter. For more details, please visit our Business Supporters webpage.
